

Tartars Name Dede Dyer 1966 Homecoming Queen

Dede Dyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dyer of 2838 Onrado St., has been selected to reign over homecoming festivities at Torrance High School Friday evening. Queen Dede will be crowned during half-time ceremonies at the Torrance High-Rolling Hills football game Friday night. Last year's queen, Cheryl Barnett, will be on hand for the coronation.

Members of Queen Dede's court include Wendy Cedarburg, Charlotte Cagaanan, Marian Denler, and Bonnie Ellis.

MISS DYER is a varsity cheerleader. She has served as president of the freshman class, junior class secretary, senior class treasurer, and commissioner of activities. She was the 1965 Miss Junior in the Girls' League competition and was freshman princess at the 1963 winter formal.

Miss Cedarburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Cedarburg of 1103 Eriel St., is a member of the Business Careers Club and has held the office of freshman class vice president. She also was Girls' League treasurer and a member of the yearbook staff.

MISS DENLER is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Denler of 2845 Sonoma St. Captain of the varsity cheerleaders, she is active in the Girls' Athletic Association and the drill team. She has served as junior class treasurer and as senior class vice president.

Miss Ellis, daughter of Mrs. Helen Ellis of 2733 Cabrillo Ave., has been active in the Girls' Athletic Association and served as a sophomore class representative.

Queen Dede and her court also will reign over the annual homecoming dance, to be held at the Torrance Recreation Center after Friday's football game.

Californians are "getting the bird" today in more ways than ever before and enjoying it better, according to the Council of California Growers. Where as the average American eats eight pounds of turkey each year, the average Californian consumes 12 pounds.

Parents of South High seniors have been invited to attend the annual College Advancement Night program tonight at 7:30. Mrs. Ruth Barr and F. G. Anderson, senior counselors, will discuss present college admission requirements and procedures.

The newly opened permanent Hall of Pre-Columbian Archeology exhibition at the Los Angeles County Museum of Natural History contains nearly 1,000 rare antiquities illustrating the great civilization of Mexico, Central America, and South America that flourished before the conquest.

The Los Angeles Alumni Chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon National Social Fraternity is sponsoring the annual Founders Day Dinner, to be held Monday at Rodger Young Auditorium in Los Angeles, according to Jerry Madera, chairman for the event.

Guest speaker will be William C. Himstreet, Dean of SC's School of Business Communication and faculty representative to the Trojan varsity football team.

Alumni members of Sigma Phi Epsilon are invited to attend, regardless of University city affiliation. Reservations may be made with Mr. Madera at 8208 W. Manchester, Los Angeles 90045.

Edison Seeks Stock Decision

Southern California Edison Co. has applied to the California Public Utilities Commission for authorization to issue and sell its previously announced new series of cumulative preferred stock.

The firm's action follows a decision by the commission to exempt the offering of up to 2.8 million shares, par value of $25 per share, from competitive bidding requirements.

New Idea Offered On Drunk Driving

The best way to eliminate drunk driving from America's highways is to reduce the penalties facing the culprit while greatly increasing his chances of being caught, according to Richard L. Goen of Stanford Research Institute in a speech before the National Safety Congress meeting in Chicago. To make the proposal work, adequate enforcement would require means of arresting 10 to 100 times as many drunk drivers as are now caught.
